

Leicester and Leicestershire Enterprise Partnership (LLEP)

The Leicester and Leicestershire Enterprise Partnership (LLEP) was formed in May 2011. It is a strategic body led by a Board made up of local government and business leaders as well as senior education and third sector representatives.

The LLEP's remit is to drive forward regeneration and growth of the local economy, by:

- Working with Government to set out key investment priorities for Leicester & Leicestershire
- Engaging with business, local authorities, Higher Education, Further Education, the voluntary sector and other stakeholders
- Facilitating local partnership working and relations with national Government
- Influencing national Government economic policy and spending
- Investing LLEP funding and aligning partner resources
- Through its investments, influence and activities ensure positive outcomes for the local economy

Nacho Galvez is Saint Martin's Enterprise Coordinator on behalf of the Leicester and Leicestershire Enterprise Partnership (LLEP). Nacho has 20 years of experience in Business Development and Employer Engagement from managing Leadership Development programmes at his time at Common Purpose, through to advising business on the value and impact of apprenticeships in his time at Leicester College.

He now supports business and schools to develop and deliver strategies that drive the Gatsby Benchmarks and employability to the heart of the Schools' strategic plans for Careers. His working career has taken him internationally doing Relationship Management in South America, Capacity Building projects in Libya and various assignments across the UK.

Nacho is Spanish but marrying a local girl rooted him in Leicestershire. In his spare time, Nacho enjoys badminton, watching movies and travelling. Whenever he is not working, the chances are he is having an adventure abroad.
