

Mr Dixon: Assistant Headteacher and Teacher of Divinity

I enjoy teaching Divinity because the subject helps me understand my own faith more, and it is always interesting to hear the responses of young people to life's 'big' questions. I particularly enjoy the GCSE unit that looks at how music is used in Catholic worship, as outside of school I am part of my church's choir.