My favourite line in a prayer is 'Give us grace to forgive, strength to overcome the difficulties we face, and keep us together when the world tries to pull us apart.' This is from the prayer 'Prayer for families'. This is important to me as it helps to keep us feeling positive and motivated in the harsh modern day world.

In this photo I am helping out at my local church and helping this little girl and her mother, and I think this represents kindness to those around us.

This second photo is me in the Christmas holidays making my family lunch and I think this might represent justice for helping out my family.

For my random act of kindness I donated some of my old toys to Loros because I didn't need them and thought other children could use them more than me. My other act of kindness was buying some food and giving it to the food bank so that people less fortunate than me won't have to go hungry. These actions link to the CST principle of the Common Good because it means that all people should be able to experience the goodness of the world so that they can flourish and grow. The other CST principle this links to is solidarity because we believe God created humans 'Imago Dei' as a community to work together. Solidarity means seeing that humans are all from the same family and depend on one another. These could be seen as acts of selflessness which means putting somebody else before yourself.

Jubilee 2025 — Pilgrims of Hope

By Isabelle W + Kara H

A hand-drawn color wheel diagram on aged paper, showing various color names and their relationships. The wheel is divided into segments with labels like 'phthalo blue', 'cobalt blue', 'L-Blue', 'D-Blue', 'B-Blue', 'S-Blue', 'blue grey', 'lute blue', 'burnt sienna + raw umber', 'singles', 'gross green', 'sky blue', 'yellow', 'yellowish green', 'greenish', 'pink', 'cerise', 'vandyke brown', 'red', 'orange', 'black', 'brilliant yellow + brown black', and 'blackish green deep green'. A bracket on the right side groups 'vandyke brown', 'red', 'orange', and 'black' together.

- We used this rough guide to plan and experiment with different colour schemes and designs.
- We annotated the colours we wished to use to make it easier for us to replicate later in the final project.
- We also measured out where everything should be, including the four quadrants for the seasons, and the base for the snow globe.

PROGRESS:

- We sketched out the initial outline onto a sheet of watercolour paper.
- We measured out the four quadrants and central circle, and the trapezium for the base.
- After measuring, finer detail was added to the base sketch.
- Using our rough guide, we blended four different blues in the sky, one for each segment.

- We added in the brown for the tree which stretches throughout the image, symbolising how our faith is all encompassing in life.
- Each quadrant (and therefore season), represents a different coloured figure within the Jubilee logo.

REPRESENTATION:

- The season of spring on the globe is shown in the top right of the image. This quadrant represents the first figure on the logo – red. Not only does the colour of the blossom correspond with the colour of the figure, but also, the main trunk of the tree symbolises the cross in the logo. The blossom clinging to the branches of the tree echoes how the red figure embraces the cross which shows the presence of God in our lives.
- The autumn quarter (bottom right) represents the yellow figure. The leaves falling represent how ephemeral life on earth is, yet, through God's love, the seasons change, and new life begins.
- Summer is found in the bottom left of the project. Its main colours are yellow and green which are embodied in the sunflowers. This denotes the third figure (green) which is embracing the yellow figure. This season also shows how beautiful God's creation is and what He made for is.
- The fourth and final figure (blue) is depicted through the season of winter (top left). The snow, present both on the branches and in the sky, represents how our faith is all around us.

FINAL PRODUCT:

- This is the final 3D snow globe. As shown by the front and back photos, the four quadrants/seasons mirror the four different coloured figures on the Jubilee logo. This logo is also present on the front of the globe, positioned in the centre. This is blue-tacked on, and when removed, reveals a stretch of paper with the lyrics to the Jubilee 2025 hymn.
- This piece of art represents growth, hope, love and humanity.
- The growth is shown throughout the four seasons, as life is made and taken away, but is then made again in an everlasting cycle.
- Hope is shown through winter as the hope of new life brings joy, even when it is cold and dark in life. This is similar to faith, as even when it is dark, faith can turn on the light.
- Love and humanity is shown the logo and lyrics in the centre, as faith is at the centre of our lives, and as we are Imago Dei, we must be stewards of God's creation and His people.

Our Idea

This year, we are preparing for the 2025 Jubilee year in the Catholic Church. Our plan is to create signs of the 4 cardinal virtues to put in school, with information, examples of execution, and scripture to inspire students to behave the way St Thomas Aquinas teaches to.

We are also creating the cross and anchor part of the 2025 Jubilee sign. The bending of the cross represents God's imminence, stretching out to all of humanity. The anchor represents the stability of hope and faith; like an anchor to a boat, our faith in God is necessary to maintain stability in our unpredictable lives.

prudence

Definition:

Doing the right thing and the quality of being prudent; cautiousness.

Quotes:

Proverbs 14:15 – “The simple believe anything but the prudent give thought to their steps”

Proverbs 16:22 – “Prudence is a fountain of life to the prudent”

Examples:

You can be prudent at home by offering counsel to family members who are arguing and using good judgement to try to settle any disputes.

Pope Francis Quote:

“It is impossible to govern without prudence. On the contrary, whoever governs without prudence governs poorly. They do evil things, and make bad decisions, which always destroy people.”

A prayer for the Year of Prayer:

*Sing your song of love over us,
renewing our faith and courage,
so, we may join our voices together,
discovering new harmonies of hope,
new melodies of reconciliation*

Justice

Quotes:

Mathew 7:12 “In everyday do to others as you would have them do to you; for this is the law and the prophets.

Examples:

Jesus showed justice when he cured the lepers’ illnesses

Pope Francis Quote:

“We are all equal – all of us – but this truth is not recognized, this equality is not recognized, and for this reason some people are, we can say, happier than others. But this is not a right! We all have the same rights.

A prayer for the Year of Prayer:

*God of blessings,
in this year ahead,
give us a spirit of listening,
of openness to your word
and longing for your kingdom.*

Fortitude

Examples:

When facing difficulties, show resilience and fortitude to overcome the challenge.

Pope Francis Quote:

“We all know people who have experienced difficult situations and great suffering. But, think of these men, these women, who lead difficult lives, who struggle to maintain their families, to bring up their children: they do all of this because the spirit of fortitude helps them”

A prayer for the Year of Prayer:

*Attentive to the Spirit,
and awake to the needs of
the world,
may we seek your life-giving
presence,
as we join as one global
family,
in a great symphony of
prayer and praise.*

TEMPERANCE

a time of new beginnings,

with each other
and all creation..*

2025 Jubilee Year

An Introduction:

This year has been dedicated as a Year of Prayer by the Pope and next year is a Jubilee Year.

Pope Francis
@Pontifex

Following

Let us ask our Lord to help us understand that love is service, love means taking care of others.

4:30 AM - 23 Jun 2018

Significance of the pilgrims of hope logo

People

The four figures represent all of humanity coming from the four corners of the earth. They embrace each other to indicate the solidarity and fraternity which should unite all peoples. The figures also remind us that we do not journey through life alone and that we are united with our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Anchor and cross

The anchor symbolises hope as it gives a ship stability and security in the same way that our faith does to us.

The cross is seen to be bending down towards humanity, not leaving humans alone but stretching out to them to offer the certainty of its presence and the security of hope.

Supportive prayer for meditation pt1:

Lord our God,

Like a flame, our hope is burning, especially in our moments of greatest need.

We pray that like a submerged anchor, our faith in you gives us stability and security no matter what tribulations we may endure, but let your goodness lead our way so that we can overcome our fears with your eternal glory by our side.

These words were taken from the Pilgrims of Hope Hymn.

This part of the prayer was inspired by the anchor on the logo for the pilgrims of hope jubilee 2025.

Supportive prayer for meditation pt2:

Let us find a light within your word and in your presence, we find security , hope , and faith.

We pray for unity in all of humanity and that we embrace each other. In life's path we trust in you and know that we are not alone.

A reminder is that our pilgrim's journey through life is not always calm and smooth and that throughout our lives, we will face challenges. We pray that we may overcome them, and they will help us to grow and develop.

The challenges we face are inspired by the waves in the logo as they will not always be calm.

Unity is a part of the four people coming together

Supportive prayer for meditation pt3:

Help us to become pilgrims of hope and grow despite the hardships that we may face throughout our lives.

May you shine a dawn of everlasting hope upon all those you care for. By the spirit of life, you may set all those fettered in body and mind, free in your glory.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Saint Martin De Porres pray for us.

Saint Thomas Aquinas pray for us.

Amen.
